8. NATURE OF PERMIT

- 8.1 No person shall enjoy a vested right in the continuance of a permit and the value of a permit shall be the property of the Township and shall remain so irrespective of the issue, or revocation thereof.
- 8.2 No person licensed to carry on any trade, calling business or occupation pursuant to this by-law shall advertise or promote or carry on such trade, calling, business or occupation under any name other than the name endorsed upon his permit.
- 8.3 The permits required by this by-law shall be valid only for the dates endorsed thereon.
- 8.4 No permit shall be transferred or assigned and if a person permitted pursuant to this by-law sells, leases or otherwise disposes of his interest in the discharge or sales of fireworks, his permit shall, notwithstanding any other provision of this by-law, be revoked.

- 8.5 Every permit shall have endorsed thereon the location of the mobile sales premises or discharge of fireworks and such endorsement shall be for one location only and such permit shall be valid only for the location endorsed thereon.
- 8.6 Receipt of the application and/or the permit fee by the Township shall not represent approval of the application for the issuance of a permit nor shall it obligate the Township to issue such permit.
- 8.7 The permit issuer shall:
- (a) receive and process all applications for permits to be issued under this by-law;
  - (b) co-ordinate the enforcement of this by-law;
  - (c) generally, perform all the administrative functions conferred upon him by this by-law;
  - (d) make or cause to be made all investigations and inspections which he deems necessary to determine whether an applicant meets the requirements of this by-law and all applicable laws; and
  - (e) issue permits to persons who meet the requirements of this by-law and refuse, suspend or revoke permits pursuant to the provisions of this by-law.
- 8.8 Notwithstanding the foregoing section, upon review of a permit application, the permit issuer may refuse to issue the permit where:
- (a) the past or current conduct of the applicant or permit holder affords reasonable grounds for belief that he is not carrying on or will not carry on the activity for which the permit is required and is made in accordance with law and with integrity and honesty; or
  - (b) there are reasonable grounds for belief that the carrying on of the activity for which a permit is required, by the applicant or permit holder, has or will result in a breach of this by-law or any other applicable law; or
  - (c) the applicant or permit holder is a corporation or a partnership and its conduct or the conduct of its officers, directors, employees, agents or partners affords reasonable grounds for belief that activity for which a permit is required will not be carried on in accordance with the law and with integrity and honesty; or
  - (d) there are reasonable grounds for belief that the premises, accommodations, equipment or facilities in respect of which the permit is required do not comply with the provisions of this by-law or any other applicable law; or
  - (e) the conduct of the applicant or permit holder or other related circumstances afford reasonable grounds for the belief that the carrying on by the applicant of the activity for which a permit is required would infringe the rights, or endanger the health or safety of members of the public; or
  - (f) the applicant or permit holder has provided fraudulent information in the permit application.
- 8.9 The applicant shall be notified, in writing by the permit issuer for the refusal of a permit, and such notification shall include the particulars of the refusal.
- 8.10 Where an application for permit is made in accordance with the provisions of this by-law and the applicant meets all the requirements of this by-law or where the permit issuer has been so authorized by Council in response to a report in this regard, the permit issuer shall issue a permit which shall set out the date of the permit in accordance with this by-law.

- 8.11 A permit may be suspended or revoked by the permit issuer for a breach of any of the provisions set out in section 8.8 of this by-law, by written notice, and it shall not be reinstated until the permit issuer is able to confirm that the conditions leading to the suspension or revocation have been remedied.
- 8.12 The applicant may appeal the refusal, suspension or revocation of a permit by doing so in writing addressed to the Clerk within 10 days of receipt of the refusal, suspension or revocation notice provided by the permit issuer.
- 8.13 At any meeting of Council called in relation to a report to consider the issuance, suspension or revocation of a permit:
  - (a) The applicant and/or permit holder shall be accorded his/her rights pursuant to the Statutory Powers Procedures Act, R.S.O. 1990, c. S.22, as amended, including the right to appear and speak to the matter;
  - (b) Where the applicant and/or permit holder has been provided with notice of the meeting and does not attend, Council may proceed with the meeting in the absence of the applicant and/or permit holder; and
  - (c) Where Council concludes that grounds exist upon which a permit may be refused, suspended or revoked, Council may in lieu thereof issue a permit for any period up to a full permit period, on probation, or without a term of probation, subject to such conditions as Council may impose and are in accordance with law.
